

GREAT RALLY AT MT. PLEASANT

King and Young Address Large Audiences.

WAS MUCH ENTHUSIASM

GARFETE IN SYMPATHY WITH DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS.

(Special to The Herald.)

MT. PLEASANT, Oct. 14.—Judge William H. King and Major Richard W. Young made a triumphant entry into Sanpete county this afternoon. For the first time since they took the stump they delivered two speeches in one day. One was at Fairview this afternoon, where Joseph Howell was billed to speak yesterday afternoon but, as the Republicans did not care enough about him or his arguments to turn out, there was no meeting. The second rally was held here this evening. It was held in the afternoon, marked the opening of the Democratic campaign in this county, and the enthusiasm manifested at the two meetings speaks well for the success of the Democratic ticket at the polls this fall.

In both places large crowds listened attentively to the two speakers, and applauded their speeches frequently and with vigor. The rally in this place was a record breaker. It was held in the theatre. When Ferdinand Erickson called the meeting to order there was not a vacant seat in the house and not less than seventy-five men and women were standing.

Just after Judge King was introduced, the members of the Ladies' club of Mt. Pleasant adjourned to the theatre in a body at the conclusion of their weekly meeting. They completely filled the remainder of the standing room in front of the stage, crowded the doorway and stood many deep on the landing on the outside. A score or more occupied improvised seats behind the stage and a number who could not gain admittance to the theatre went home disappointed.

Enthusiasm at Fairview.

After the ladies had been accommodated, Judge King continued his address, remarking that, if any more of the citizens of the city would attend the rally, an overflow meeting would have to be held. The rally held at Fairview so enthused the local Democrats that they issued a call for a mass meeting tomorrow night, where a stronger and more perfect organization will be perfected and a woman's club instituted to labor in behalf of the party. The same spirit was manifested here at the conclusion of the meeting and County Chairman Erickson made the prediction that on Nov. 4 the Democrats of this place will roll up a larger majority than they did when Judge King was first elected to congress.

Major Hansen presided over the Fairview meeting. Although the speakers were three hours late in reaching the town, on account of the trains being delayed, the Democrats did not tire waiting, and accorded them a warm reception. Major Young confined his remarks to explaining the platform adopted by the party in the state convention at Provo. He said in conclusion that if the administration had dealt fairly with the Philippines after the war with Spain and had told the natives just what the United States proposed to do for and by them, that there would have been no insurrection. Inasmuch as the army officers could not even tell them whether they were ultimately to receive their independence, they took up arms against the government.

Judge King, among other things, said it was a sad commentary upon American politics when a man who did not mention any names, just because he was lucky enough to strike a rich mine should gain a seat in the United States senate, attempt by the aid of his money to establish a social circle and say to the poorer classes, which are eminently as respectable and more highly educated, that they could not pass within the line he had drawn.

Major Young's Address.

The major portion of Major Young's address at this place was devoted to the irrigation law, exploding the claim of the Republicans that they passed the measure. He said in the senate it was passed unanimously. In the house, although there were more Republicans than Democrats in that branch of congress, ten more Democrats voted for the bill than against it.

He defended the party against the accusations made by the Republicans that the Democrats assailed the American army in the Philippines. Told how President Roosevelt disapproved of a court-martial acquitting an army officer because he thought the evidence showed he had been cruel to the natives, and paid a high tribute to the gallant services of the boys who constituted the Utah battery and fought under him.

The demonization of silver and the power of the trusts were expatiated upon by Judge King. He said the silver question is not dead and never will be as long as there is a Democratic party. He denied the assertion made last night by Mr. Howell that Grover Cleveland was responsible for the hard times in the early '90s, showing that those dark days were due to a worldwide conspiracy of the banking houses to destroy one-half of the basic currency of the globe, and giving the hands of a few banks the power to issue money excepting gold. He told how the Republicans can destroy the trusts if they wanted to, but as they are not so inclined it can and will be done by the Democrats. Owing to an epidemic of diphtheria in Sterling, Judge King and Major Young will not speak there Wednesday afternoon, but will go on to Mant.

DINNER FOR DAVID ECCLES

Ogden Financier Banqueted in Weber Club by Associates in Various Commercial Enterprises—Magnificent French Clock Given Him by His Co-workers.

(Special to The Herald.)

OGDEN, Oct. 14.—One of the most elaborate and enjoyable banquets ever given in the city was held tonight in the rooms of the Weber club, when a number of the friends and business associates of David Eccles banqueted him. The banquet took place in the ladies' dining room. The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and at one end of the room was a large portrait of Mr. Eccles, while at the other was a magnificent French clock standing ten feet high, with a mahogany case and a cathedral chime, about the finest timepiece that ever came to this city.

In the course of the evening this was presented to Mr. Eccles by Fred J. Kiesel as a testimonial from a number of the friends and co-workers of the guest of the evening. Mr. Eccles made an appreciative and happy response in accepting the gift. Each of the gentlemen present has been closely identified with Mr. Eccles in some of his various enterprises, that have been instrumental in building up the city of Ogden, and each responded to some toast. The menu cards contained cuts of the Eccles building where the banquet was held, the Ogden sugar factory, the Utah state flower, the seagull, and other characteristic illustrations. At the banquet table were seated in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Eccles the following gentlemen and their ladies: Thomas D. Dea, Fred J. Kiesel, Joseph Scowcroft, W. H. Watts, H. H. Rolapp, H. H. Spencer, James Pingree, Joseph Clark, James Mack.

Joseph Georgehan was present from Salt Lake and responded to the toast "The Absent Brethren." These included a number who had contributed to the purchase of the testimonial, but who could not be present. The names of those making the gift were engraved on a silver plate and handed over to the defendant, alleging that there is no cause of action.

FIGHTING SOLDIER.

As a result of permissuously applying his fists to the visage of another man, Joseph Cook, a soldier from Fort Douglas, was landed in the city jail last night on a charge of assault and battery. The victim of the alleged assault was A. S. Benjamin. According to the story at the latter the soldier was drinking and took offense at some statement he volunteered. Then, according to all accounts, the soldier proceeded to exercise himself in a defendant, alleging that there is no cause of action.

WIDOW FOR ONE DAY.

Mrs. Ihrigg Granted Divorce Monday and Married Yesterday.

Divorced the day previous and married yesterday is the experience of Mrs. Nellie Ihrigg, who was married yesterday to Peter J. Peterson by Deputy Clerk Emery.

Suit for divorce from her husband, O. L. Ihrigg, was begun by the woman several weeks ago and was heard in the district court Monday. Cruelty and failure to provide were the chief charges in the complaint and when taken before the court the woman was granted a decree of divorce. The decree was granted Monday in Judge Hall's court.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure For It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling. There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is one using after each meal a tablet, composed of Dilastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. E. S. Workman, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the mucous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, this producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribe for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, Catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heart burn and bloating after meals.

NALLEY IS DEAD.

Scotfield Officer Succumbs to Wounds Inflicted by Robbers.

Special Deputy Marshal Thomas Nalley, who was shot while assisting a posse of officers to quell a disturbance among drunken Finns and Slavs in Scotfield on the 6th of this month, died of his wound at St. Mark's hospital in this city yesterday afternoon. As a result of his death, Antone Genisky, who is alleged to have fired the fatal shot, will probably have to face a charge of murder.

Deputy Nalley, after being wounded, was brought to this city to the hospital hovering between life and death until his struggle was ended at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The trouble which led up to the killing of the deputy arose in a saloon owned by A. Bartnick, where a gang of Finlanders and Slavs gathered and began to raise a disturbance. After the town marshal had attempted to quiet the disturbance and had been

SUPPLY EXHAUSTED.

At the, he swore in several deputies and returned to the place. The marshal and Nalley entered the saloon and Nalley seized Bartnick, attempting to arrest him. A scuffle ensued, in which Genisky, the bartender, took part.

During the scuffle a shot was fired, supposedly by Genisky, and the bullet struck Nalley in the back of the head, inflicting the wound from which he died. A number of shots were exchanged, and Bartnick was struck by a bullet, which resulted in his death about an hour after the shooting.

Genisky was finally arrested, and when it became known that Nalley had been shot there was talk of lynching, and the excitement ran so high that the jail was guarded. Further trouble may result when it becomes known that Nalley has succumbed to his wounds.

Before his death Nalley made a dying statement to the county attorney here to be used in the case.

Y. M. C. A. NIGHT SCHOOL.

Outlook For Good Term Encourages Supporters.

The Y. M. C. A. night school opened last evening, and Secretary Cox was more than pleased with the outlook for a prosperous term the coming winter. In all about thirty students reported, which is considered a very good showing for the first night. This is about one-third of the number expected to come on as the season progresses, which will make one of the largest attendances in the history of the institution.

The school has been fortunate in selecting a corps of trained teachers, each one of whom is considered very efficient in his department. G. W. Lilly, a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and chief draftsman of the motive power and mechanical department of the Oregon Short Line railway, has charge of the class in architectural and drawing, and Paul C. Withrow, a draftsman of the same road, will act as his assistant. Ernest Scott, instructor in the Wasatch school, will have charge of the classes in grammar, reading, spelling and arithmetic. Miss Enay Curtis will teach shorthand and typewriting, and A. T. Walts will have charge of the bookkeeping, penmanship, commercial law and commercial correspondence classes.
